

HEDLEY STARTS SIDE-DOOR TRAINS IN THE SUBWAY

Express Schedule for Week
Days Is Put Into Effect
To-Day.

PLEASE SEE PASSENGERS.

Three Men Required for Each
Car—Company to Ask for Reduction.

Hereafter on week days the Interborough Rapid Transit Company will maintain a regular schedule of side door express trains in the subway. General Manager Hedley, of the underground road, issued the order which became effective to-day.

The schedule follows:

Leave West Farms	Leave Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn
8:00 A. M.	8:00 A. M.
8:05 A. M.	8:05 A. M.
8:10 A. M.	8:10 A. M.
8:15 A. M.	8:15 A. M.
8:20 A. M.	8:20 A. M.
8:25 A. M.	8:25 A. M.
8:30 A. M.	8:30 A. M.
8:35 A. M.	8:35 A. M.
8:40 A. M.	8:40 A. M.
8:45 A. M.	8:45 A. M.
8:50 A. M.	8:50 A. M.
8:55 A. M.	8:55 A. M.
9:00 A. M.	9:00 A. M.

Despite Mr. Hedley's assertion before the Public Service Commission that the side doors were a nuisance and of no practical use in facilitating traffic, the passengers who rode on the early trains during the rush hours to-day said many complimentary things of them.

Side Doors Effective.

The side doors were certainly effective in quickly disposing of the crush, and jam at the Grand Central and Fourteenth street express stations on the train which arrived at these points about 8:30 A. M.

Each car fitted with side doors requires a crew of three men. A uniformed guard is stationed at each of the two exit doors, while the regular odd-type brakeman opens and closes the doors between cars.

To properly operate a complete six-car side door train a crew of eighteen men is necessary, while under the former system a motorman and one guard to each car was sufficient. This additional employment of men (at from $12 to $16 per week) will cost the Interborough Company a pretty penny in the course of a year should the Hughes Commission decide that every express train shall be fitted with the extra doors.

Company Likely to Fight.
The railroad company will probably make a fight against the eighteen-man crew and instead ask the Public Service Commission to allow them to station side-openers at each of the main express platforms. If all express trains had side doors, this would mean an enormous saving.

In Paris the side doors in the subway are opened by passengers themselves, but they are closed by a guard before the signals the motorman to start the train.

Experts employed by the railroad and the Public Service Commission are watching the operation for a few weeks to see what practical results can be obtained. The latter body has already given the side doors its unqualified approval, and the railroad men are set against the scheme.

FASHIONABLE WOMEN BLOCK CORNELL CLUB

Headed by Mrs. C. T. Barney,
They Resist Issuance of a License.

Just because the Cornell Club has become ambitious and plans to have a brand new home in Park avenue with a kitchen facing Thirty-eighth street, things social are in some turmoil on Murray Hill. This is one of the most exclusive sections of the city. J. Pierpont Morgan and many of his intimates live nearby, so does Mrs. C. T. Barney.

The neighborhood looked good to the members of the Cornell when they began to search recently for more spacious quarters than they have at No. 58 West Forty-fifth street, so they decided to move in.

But there is a liquor law which has been known to act as a brake on sociability. Mrs. Barney was approached by a courteous Cornellian and asked to sign a permit for a license. She said she wouldn't. Then she told Mrs. Mary J. Knowlton, who has a handsome home at No. 102 East Thirty-eighth street, just in the rear of the would-be club, and she, too, said she wouldn't. Then the clubmen learned that nearly all the dames of fashion in the neighborhood were up in arms and that their leader was Mrs. Barney.

Mrs. Barney has turned her share in the row over to the estate of C. T. Barney, her late husband. The managers of the estate are A. H. and J. W. Barney, her sons. At the offices in the Empire building no information would be given out and Mrs. Barney declined to discuss the matter.

Mrs. Knowlton was more communicative. "When the club representative called, we refused to sign so long as the kitchen was to remain on Thirty-eighth street," she said. "If they had consented to put it on the Park avenue side we might have considered the matter. But they wouldn't."

CZAR GIVES $2,500 TO Y. M. C. A.

We can give you only a hint of what these Suits are, because any detailed descriptions would bring a host of customers, and we would not have enough for them.

So we tell you frankly that there are only Seventy-one Suits, hardly any two alike, and they are not likely to last the day. This makes early selection urgent. Regular values up to $35.00. Sale price..... $10

Mission Furniture

Made by the Famous

Stickley Bros. Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.,
At Exactly Half Regular Prices

The collection offered in this sale is the product of Stickley Bros. Co., of Grand Rapids, the famous makers of "Quaint Furniture, in Arts and Crafts." Stickley Bros. Co. during the January exposition had on hand a number of patterns, which they had decided not to make during the season of 1909
